

English 10B
The 4-step summary
Inference

An inference is something you can conclude from the narrator's and characters' actions, words, and thoughts. An inference is not stated directly in the text, but inferred or assumed by the reader. Inference asked you to "Reading between the lines."

Name
Date
Period

TITLE: "House Taken Over" by Julio Cortazar with a focus on INFERENCE.

Step 1: Name it!	Verb it!	Finish it! (Main Idea) Inferences in the story _____ that
Transitions 1. 2. 3.	Step 2: Final Copy Topic Sentence: In his story, "House Taken Over" Julio Cortazar uses inferences to... Step 3: Main Events/Facts Outline:

Step 4: Finally Summary Paragraph—5 sentences (first sentence is the topic sentence in step two)—and at least 3 specific details from the story that support your topic sentence.