

- 1. Use these words in a story: Hurricane, Flashlight, Lawn Mower
- 2. Write a story about a man who skipped breakfast.
- 3. Write the story of a disastrous family picnic.
- 4. Write about a man who got stood up on a date.
- 5. You come home and check your phone messages. You get to your third message and freeze. Begin from there.
- 6. Write about a person who does everything "by the book."
- 7. Begin a story with, "The hallway was silent..."
- 8. Begin with "I wish someone told me..."
- 9. This dialogue must appear somewhere in your story: "You know what else children don't know?"
- 10. Weave a story around this mixed proverb: "Bad news cures all things."
- 11. Weave a story around a 60-year old photograph.
- 12. Put an athlete, artist and a fitness instructor in a museum. Add in a broken window and a crooked painting. One of the three panics. Write out the scene.
- 13. Weave a story around this mixed proverb: "Silence is a great healer."
- 14. What story can you come up with this premise: a flight attendant drinking champagne in first class?
- 15. Weave a story using the following words in order: shell, comic book, discarded soap box, rubber soles, postcard
- 16. Use these words in a story: Hurricane, Flashlight, Lawn Mower
- 17. Write a story about a man who skipped breakfast.

- 18. Write the story of a disastrous family picnic.
- 19. Write about a man who got stood up on a date.
- 20. You come home and check your phone messages. You get to your third message and freeze. Begin from there.
- 21. Write about a person who does everything "by the book."
- 22. Begin a story with, "The hallway was silent..."
- 23. Begin with "I wish someone told me..."
- 24. This dialogue must appear somewhere in your story: "You know what else children don't know?"
- 25. Weave a story around this mixed proverb: "Bad news cures all things."
- 26. Weave a story around a 60-year old photograph.
- 27. Put an athlete, artist and a fitness instructor in a museum. Add in a broken window and a crooked painting. One of the three panics. Write out the scene.
- 28. Weave a story around this mixed proverb: "Silence is a great healer."
- 29. What story can you come up with this premise: a flight attendant drinking champagne in first class?
- 30. Weave a story using the following words in order: shell, comic book, discarded soap box, rubber soles, postcard