

Creative Writing Imagery Assignment

Instructions: in the form of a short poem (10-21 lines), answer each of the following questions/prompts. These four poems are due tomorrow morning.

1. If we had no word for “blue” or “cloud” in our (your) language, how would you describe the sky?

2. How would you describe the emotion of fear to someone if you couldn’t use a really scary story as an example?

3. How would you describe your favorite music to someone who could never hear it?

4. How would you tell someone you love him or her if you couldn’t touch them or give them anything?
